

Collective Consciousness

Reverend Gena Alston from the Brisbane Northside Spiritualist Church is an affiliated member of the ICS Inc.
Send your questions to: gena@genaalston.com

Dear Gena

Last year was a really bad year for me, can you see if this new year will be better? What can I do to change the rut that I seem to be in? Will I find a good woman this year?

Thank Pat

Dear Pat

Well you are starting off with the right desires but I think that you need to be a bit more positive! I sense that you look to the rest of the world to help you, I am sorry to say this but it is coming through very strongly as I answer you.

You need to get out more and spend less time in front of the TV, I feel that you are quite sensitive and it would be better to join a club where you gather outside. Being in doors all the time depletes your energy.

You have learnt a lot of good lessons in the year done past and now it is time to put what you have gained into action.

Get out and about Pat, bring some colour to your cheeks and then there is the possibility of meeting that 'good woman' that you are searching for, but you will not find her in front of the TV.

Many blessings Rev. Gena

Dear Rev. Gena

I had my grandson come and stay with me at Christmas time, and we had a grand time. He was a good as gold except when he had to go to bed. He said that he did not like the room it frightened him because there was a man there who looked really angry. I tried to convince him to stay and one night I found him asleep outside the bedroom that my husband and I use. Is there a ghost for I have never seen one?

Thank you Marjory

Dear Marjory

Yes, your little young man did see a ghost! I presume that the house is not old for I am being told that it is the 'ghost' of the owner prior to the people you bought the house from.

This 'ghost' is lost and needs to move on. I suggest that you keep the curtains open and put some lavender spray in there. If you can I would 'speak with the ghost' whose name is Tom and tell him that he needs to 'go to the light'. Light a candle and say the Lord's Prayer or any other prayer that you believe in and ask him to move. He, the ghost is a gentle soul but has just not taken the next step.

Your Grandson is very sensitive to these vibrations and you will find later on that he will be comfortable with his abilities and enjoy his life regardless of being able to see those who have passed on, or in the case of 'Tom' who need to pass through.

If you have any problems in the future please do not hesitate to contact me.

Many blessings Rev. Gena

Hello Gena

My name is Jenny and I am confused about a work situation. I returned to work after the Christmas break to see that there are changes to be made and one of these is that my Manager will become someone that I cannot work with. She and I do not get along because we went out with the same man! What should I do? Would it be best to look for somewhere else?

Thanks Jenny

Hello Jenny

Actually I think that you can be glad that this event had come about. I am being told that it is time for you to move on anyway. I appears that it should have been you that was given the position of Manager but some form of favouritism has given it to the other person.

"Upstairs" are telling me that you would do much better elsewhere and that now is the time to look for a better situation. I see for you that a certain amount of training will come with the new position that will advance your career.

Be bold Jenny and look to some other place and then your life will become full of greater things.

Bye the way I am being told to tell you that you will meet a special someone in the new work place, I am sure that this is enough incentive to get you going?

Many blessings Rev. Gena

Dear Reverend Gena

I have been ill for a long time and am now recovering; I would like to know if you see any work for me in the future. Due to the illness that I suffered I have been on benefits for just over two years, I am grateful for the help that I have received but so want to 'get a life' and move forward. What can you see for me? I am 45 years old and was once a secretary.

Thank you Brenda

Dear Brenda

I am so pleased that you are finally on the road to recovery but I have to say that it will take a few more months before you really feel fit and healthy. However, I have a woman who has come in and she says that she is the Grandmother on your Father's side. Her name is Betty and she is with you. She has asked me to tell you that 'you will have work by the time it is your birthday'. She mentions that 'you have been 'too hard on yourself and that it was not your fault'. Only you will understand this.

I see you going into a building and working on the 3rd floor but in a part-time situation to begin with, and then you will be offered full-time work. The work place will be something that will help others, not a charity but perhaps a place for advise. Give yourself 2 months and then all will begin to unfold for you. The worst is over Brenda there is a new beginning for you now.

Many blessings Rev. Gena

Dear Rev Gena

Last year I wrote to you and you gave me some really good advice about spiritualist churches and where to go. I found one and it worked out well and I attended the development classes and found that I was quite good at all this stuff! I am now moving to North Queensland near to Cairns and wondered if you know of any people there that I can meet up with. I want to continue developing because it has helped me so much with my life. Any ideas?

Cheers Tracey

Dear Tracey

Great news that you found somewhere that suited you and great news that you are moving near to Cairns! I have spirit energy with me that is telling me that 'lots will happen to you when you move north'. This energy is of a young person who is part of your family. I see a car crash and this is what ended the physical life of this young man. He is telling me that he was driving to fast! I hope that you recognise who he is. He says that he is one of the many young people in the family that you used to go fishing with?

I see that within a few weeks of arriving to live in the north you will come across some people who are as interested as you are in development and that somehow a gathering will take place.

Get up there, get unpacked and then you will find something. I cannot give you any names for I know none but you could check on the Internet and into a spiritual church site and see what is there.

Good luck and many blessings Rev. Gena

Dear Rev Gena

I have just broken up with my partner we lived together for over 3 years. I don't know what to do without him; I thought that we were together forever. I know that we argued a bit but that was because he talked to lots of other women when we were out and it made me mad. He said I was too jealous and I said that he was too friendly with the women. What will happen will we get back like we did the last time this happened or has he gone for always now?

Regard 'really sad'.

Dear 'Really Sad'

I am sorry to tell you that this time I see that it is over. I do sense that you did not trust him but I am being told that there was good reason not to! I see another man coming into your life that drives a truck and this is the type of man who could make you happy if you are not too demanding.

You must accept that the relationship that you were in is finished and that you need to move on. Please start going out and meeting people and then you will meet this other man whose name begins with the letter "p".

Many blessing Rev. Gena

Dear Gena

My husband Tom of 45 years marriage passed away at the beginning of 2006. It has taken me a long time to become used to the loneliness of not having him around. We were very happy and did so much together that it is like I have lost my right arm.

My children who are married with their own families have told me to go out and meet people but I can't find the energy to do so. Sometimes I feel that Tom has come to visit me and that is in the home we shared for so long. I don't want to go anywhere for I feel him around me. What should I do my children are worried about me.

Thank you for your advice Amy

Dear Amy

As soon as I read your query I had the feeling of a very 'cheeky man' around me and I have to accept that this is your Tom. He wants you to get out also and says that if he were around you would be going to all the garden centres that you could. He wants you to join a gardening club so that you can use those 'wonderful green fingers'.

Yes he does come to visit but tells me that he can go anywhere and not have to use transport! He has a wonderful sense of humour and tells me that it is time that you found yours again.

Go to the library and find a gardening club and then he will be happy. He promises to 'look after you' until you are together again but it will not be for a while he says for you have work to do with the grandchildren?

Many blessings from me and a 'smacker from Tom'.

Collective Consciousness

Reverend Gena Alston from the Brisbane Northside Spiritualist Church is an affiliated member of the ICS Inc.
Send your questions to: gena@genaalston.com

Collective Consciousness

Reverend Gena Alston from the Brisbane Northside Spiritualist Church is an affiliated member of the ICS Inc.
Send your questions to: gena@genaalston.com